

GDPR Data Privacy Amendment Update:

Prime Medical Staffing Ltd are contacting you as you have previously provided us with data such as your CV, personal details and ID and other such data together with other such data like your medical records, blood type etc which is now considered special category data under the new regulation. From time to time we review and update our data policy in light of new legal and best practice requirements. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our customers and other website visitors. This update is a notification to the changes made to safeguard and protect your data as required by the New GDPR legislation. We hold your data on our secure database and server.

The new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) comes into effect on the 25th May which outlines how data about you is processed, accessed, stored and shared. The new regulations applies to every piece of personal information we hold about you, meaning, we must regain consent to hold or use any personal information we already have in order to seek new employment opportunities for you. This may be either for temporary, permanent or fixed term contracts.

We are committed to ensuring confidentiality/privacy for everyone who engages with our business and uses our services. We appreciate that you do not want the personal information you provide to us distributed indiscriminately.

As a Clinical Services Business, we process personal data in order to register and complete your pre-employment screening requirements with us, in order that we can secure you work opportunities. Under the EU General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR - which replaced the Data Protection Act), we must comply with certain rules which are designed to ensure that any data you provide to us is processed accurately with due care and attention.

We follow strict security procedures to ensure that your personal information is not damaged, destroyed or disclosed to a third party without your explicit consent. To prevent unauthorized access our computers that store information about you are kept in a secure facility with restricted physical access and we use secure firewalls, passwords, encryptions and other measures to restrict electronic access.

We collect and process sensitive/special categories of personal data only as far as is necessary and in compliance with all applicable legislation. By registering your details with us, you consent to us collecting and processing sensitive personal data supplied by you and disclosing this information to prospective employers and clients in connection with the recruitment process.

To comply with the new GDPR legislation we have updated our data processing, privacy and data retention policies. These can be viewed on our website by clicking on:
